

TechGYRLS Spring Camp

TechGYRLS is offering a morning session this spring. Girls who participate in the program will get hands on experience in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics). TechGYRLS is provided by NDSU's Industrial & Manufacturing Engineering Department, the NDSU Society of Women Engineers, and the YWCA Cass Clay. The goal of TechGYRLS is to broaden girls' knowledge, interest, and confidence in STEM.

Camp activities include:

- Learn how to live green & make your own compost bin.
- Create your own lip balm...take it home for yourself or makes a great gift!
- Even more fun activities!

When: Saturday, May 8 from 9:00-11:30 a.m.
Where: YWCA Emergency Shelter, 3000 S. University Dr., Fargo
Cost: $10 (Scholarships available upon request)

Registration will be capped at 36 girls...enroll soon!**

To enroll, return the bottom portion of this form & the emergency contact/consent form, along with payment, to:
